

PRESS RELEASE

QUEST Investment Partners establishes its own investment Company

- QUEST Funds targets institutional investors
- Focus on commercial properties in major German cities
- Roland Holschuh assumes leadership as Managing Partner

Hamburg, 29 January 2020. Real estate company Quest Investment Partners has founded a company for investment business with institutional investors: the new QUEST Funds GmbH is headquartered in Frankfurt and Hamburg. Managing Partner is Roland Holschuh FRICS (45) who will be responsible for the expansion of real estate investments and for the day-to-day management.

QUEST Funds is an investment manager that focuses on core plus and value-add commercial properties with specific emphasis on Germany. The investment partners of the new company will include institutional investors such as insurance providers, pension funds, foundations and family offices. Together with QUEST Funds, they can make tailored real estate investments as funds, club deals or individual investments. The investments focus on office properties with potential for value creation in central locations in Berlin, Frankfurt, Hamburg and Munich.

As board member of Commerz Real AG and Managing Director of Commerz Real Investment KVG, Roland Holschuh was last responsible for asset management of all real estate investment vehicles of the Commerz Real Group with a volume of approximately 14 billion euros. Prior to joining Commerz Real, he restructured the combined real estate portfolio of Commerzbank and Dresdner Bank during their integration in his role as Global Head of Corporate Real Estate Management.
