

PRESS RELEASE

Ulrich Rössing joins QUEST Investment Partners as Managing Director

Hamburg, 23 June 2020. On 1 May 2020, the Hamburg head office of the investment and project development company QUEST Investment Partners brought Ulrich Rössing (52) on board as Managing Director. Rössing will assume the newly-created position of technical Managing Director at the operational subsidiary QUEST Management GmbH. With a degree in architecture (Dipl.-Ing. Architektur), he will be responsible for the technical development, investment management as well as the planning and construction aspects of all projects in Germany. He heads up a team that currently counts 20 employees. Theja Geyer and Jan Rouven Künzel will remain the Managing Partners of the parent company QUEST Investment Partners.

Ulrich Rössing worked at ECE Projektmanagement G.m.b.H. & Co. KG in Hamburg for more than twelve years. Since 2008, he had been in charge of project and construction management of the office, traffic and industry projects in his capacity as Director Construction. Most recently, from 2017 to 2020, he served as Managing Director of DSR Immobilien GmbH in Hamburg and Rostock, where he was responsible for the technical project development and project management of various holiday hotels and resorts.

Ulrich Rössing graduated from Leibniz University in Hanover. As an architect, he is a member of the Hamburg Chamber of Architects.
